The smoke and haze that hung over the city and surrounding country yesterday and obscured one's vision was the effect of the destructive forest fires we have been reading about in the Northwest. There was scarcely a time during the day that you could distinguish the hills on the Ohio side, so dense and heavy the smoke and atmosphere. Its like was never known in this section before.

THEATRIUM

Carroll and Brevort again made another big hit in their funny act, "20 Minutes In a Lunch Room." Their act proved again to be a big success. Tonight they will say good-bye to Maysville, after three nights here. Change of program Thursday night, with Verne and Verne, who come highly recommended. Come tonight and see a good show. Open at seven.

Mrs. Oliver Nelson, colored, while engaged in washing clothing at the residence of Mrs. Thomas Wells in West Third street yesterday, ran a needle in the palm of her hand and broke it off. It required the attention of a physician to extract it.

The winners in the dancing contest at the Princess Rink last night were as follows, the ladies being: Miss Etta Porter, first prize, Miss Iva Mattox, second prize and Miss Lena Walsh, third prize. Gentlemen: Leo. Cullen, first prize, Robert Coburn, second prize and V. S. Norman, third prize.

Captain C. W. Mytinger, one of Greenup's oldest residents, died suddenly Friday last of heart disease. He had just arisen and was dressing, when he sank back on the bed and soon expired. Captain Mytinger was born in Ohio December 12th, 1820. He served in the Union Army during the Civil War and was honorably discharged at its close. He is survived by several children, among them Mrs. Bennett, wife of Congressman J. B. Bennett.

THE HOME STORE.

For the "particular" man and youngster we have the "particular" styles, models that embody the latest and strongest style features. Some quite extreme styles for the college fellows. An elegant line of Topcoats for crisp mornings and evenings. An endless variety of Cravenette Coats, a coat of general utility. They are fine for a rainy or dusty day, for traveling or evening wear, in fact, for most any and every occasion they are unequaled. We cannot help feeling a bit "chesty" on account of our Shoe trade—2 men busy all day Saturday until 10 o'clock at night fitting patiently waiting customers with Hanan, Douglas and Walkover Shoes. "Little Ones," our pony is at Dr. James' stable on Sutton street. Go and get acquainted with the little beauty. One of you will get him sure.

The fog this morning was so thick that one could slice it with a knife. The Devil in The Ledger Office wisely remarked that "the fog was caused by a big pine forest fire near Manchester." He ought to know, and nobody else ventured an opinion.

THE GAME LAWS

Prohibit the Shooting of Rabbits— The Law Openly Violated— Where Are the Game Wardens?

The following Sections of the Kentucky Game Laws are published by request, as the wanton slaughter of rabbits with guns goes merrily on in Mason and other counties, which is a wanton violation of the law.

Paste the following where you may refer to it, as the strict adherence to it may save you a heavy fine:

Chapter 57, Act of February 27th, 1894.

SEC. 1944. No person shall catch, kill, or pursue with such intent, or have the same in possession after it has been caught or killed, any quail, partridge or pheasant, between the first day of January and the fifteenth day of November in each year.

SEC. 1947. No person shall at any time catch, kill, or take by means of net, trap, box or snare, or have in possession after having been so caught, killed or taken, any quail, partridge or pheasant.

Chapter 38, Act of March 18th, 1904.

SEC. 17. No person shall kill or pursue with such intent, or have in his possession when so killed, any rabbit or squirrel between fifteenth day of September and the fifteenth day of November in each year. Provided, any one may catch rabbits with dogs, or in snares.

Chapter 107, Act of March 24th, 1904.

SEC. 1 That it shall be unlawful in the State of Kentucky at any time, to buy, sell, expose for sale, offer for sale, or have in possession for the purpose of bartering or selling, any wild turkeys, pheasants, grouse, partridge or quail, which have been killed within this State.

SEC. 4. Whoever violates any provisions of this Act shall be fined not less than $10, nor more than $25 for a first offense, and not less than $25 nor more than $50 for any subsequent offense.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist Church will meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Parker's livery stable office, to proceed to Miss Alwilda Wheeler's in the county.

I have opened a Tailorshop in the Picklin building, 6½ West Front. My specialty is a custom-made suit from $20 to $40. If you want your repairing, cleaning and pressing done in a high-class manner bring it to me. Prices reasonable. C. F. McNAMARA, 6½ West Front street.

A telephone inquiry from Portsmouth, Ohio, early this morning wanted to know "if Maysville was burning." The answer went back that we were a little warm, but that we were not burning so that you could notice it. Happily, our water pressure precludes any tremendous conflagration here. However, the City Dads might improve the system by giving us a fine team of horses, a fire engine and the electric fire alarm system.

PATRICK MORRIS.

Mr. Patrick Morris, whose illness has been noted in THE LEDGER, died last evening at his home in East Fourth street, after a protracted illness with consumption, aged 47 years.

He was born in Mayslick, and had resided in Mason county all his life, esteemed and respected by his fellow-citizens for his general high character and worth as a Christian gentleman.

He leaves a widow and three small children, besides three sisters, Misses Maggie and Ellen Morris and Mrs. John Moran, all of Cincinnati.

ALL that Mr. BRYAN needs is time in order to be able to answer all of his own arguments.

SOME of the Mason county Democrats are making a noise like they have given 30 cents to Mr. BRYAN's hot air fund.

GOVERNOR HASKELL ought to write a campaign song entitled "How the Dog Feels When the Can Is On His Tail."—Portsmouth Blade.

WITH 17 football players carried unconscious from a football game in Schenectady, we have no time to bother with Bulgaria.—New York Telegraph.

AN Evansville man says he is going to help the poor when he gets his $3,000,000 share of the $80,000,000 English estate left by Sir FRANCIS DRAKE. We don't see how he is going to do it, when there is no such thing as any $80,000,000 "chancery estate" in "old England."

As a successful vote solicitor WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN can do more hustling around and get less returns than any political faker on the raging stump.

THE Democratic Campaign Text Book can hardly be reckoned among the season's "best sellers," but its originality as a work of fiction cannot be denied.

PEOPLE let their sink spouts empty on the ground near their wells and then wonder where they or their children "could have caught diphtheria or typhoid fever."

THERE is much speculation as to the sort of platform the perpetual candidate will adopt in 1912, but whatever it may be the paramount issue will inevitably be W. J. BRYAN.

NO WONDER BRYAN is so intimate with TOM TAGGART. Maybe he is hoping that wheel of chance over at the French Lick Casino will turn him into the White House.—Louisville Post.

EVERYBODY stopped frothing at the mouth about the Balkan embroglio when it was discovered that there was no cash in the exchequer to pay the bills. It takes money to carry on a war and the Shylocks of Lombard street must have their pound of flesh on the spot or there's nothing doing in the blood-pudding market.

ONE of the home thrusts made in Senator BRADLEY's Maysville speech was when he declared that he challenged "any person to point to one single National law on the Federal statute books put there by the Democratic party during the past 47 years." Can any Mason county Democrat point to any law of any note incorporated upon the Federal statutes by the Democratic party and which stands today among the great beneficent laws of the United States?

Great Public Improvements.

All the way from South Africa come J. S. Schoeman and Mrs. Schoeman to study for the benefit of their own country what is being done to reclaim the arid regions of the United States. They find in progress here the greatest work of reclamation and irrigation ever undertaken by any government in ancient or modern times. It is a work which President Roosevelt has justly said comes next to the homestead act in its importance to the American people. Sixteen states and territories are benefited by this tremendous improvement, and thousands of families have founded homes on the lands already reclaimed from the desert.

Great and beneficent as this work is, it is but a feature of the general policy of Republican administrations from the period of reconstruction and especially within the past twelve years—to do the best possible for all the people and for all sections of the Union—to make the United States, east, west, north and south, a country worth living in, and to develop to the utmost the resources of the soil, of the forest, of the mines and waters of every region within the bounds of the republic.

The present political campaign will decide whether this policy is to continue, whether the nation is to go ahead or to halt, whether we are to have progress and prosperity under Taft or reaction and ruin under Bryan. The very platform on which Bryan stands and by the language of which he has repeatedly declared himself to be bound denounces Republican expenditures in general, including those for irrigation, as "unnecessary and wasteful." Bryan, if elected, would be as much bound by the platform as he is in the campaign, and this mighty undertaking, by which arid portions of sixteen states and territories are being converted into thrifty farms, would undoubtedly suffer.

The people of those states and territories are not the only parties interested in preventing such a calamity as stoppage or delay in the work of reclamation. Every patriotic and broad minded voter in the United States ought to be and will be influenced in his attitude toward the presidential contest by a determination that not only the reclamation service, but every other great scheme of national betterment begun and carried on under Republican administrations, shall continue and that the work shall not be handed over to the avowed enemies of progress. A vote for Taft and Sherman will be a vote for the earnest prosecution not only of the task of reclaiming arid lands, but of every public improvement directed by federal authority.

Taft's Election Means More Work.

A member of New York Typographical union No. 6 is quoted as having said at a meeting of unemployed that the voters among them could help to solve the problem by voting for Taft and the development of business under Republican guidance and thereby opening new chances for employment.

The advice given was in accord with the general opinion of business men and of wage earners employed and unemployed. The election of Taft and Sherman is looked forward to as certain to bring a period of active and prosperous business, and it is said that many orders have been given to manufacturers subject to cancellation after election—meaning, although there is no mention made of candidates in the orders, that should Bryan be elected the orders would be canceled for reasons that every one with any foresight understands.

The problem of the unemployed can be solved only by employment. The election of Taft means employment. The election of Bryan would mean more unemployment. While there may be some ground for the old saying that misery loves company, it would be very poor consolation to the workless worker to have others brought into the same predicament. It would be much more satisfactory to get work and see others at work too. The election of Taft and Sherman and the continuance of Republican policies under a Republican administration will bring work.

From "The Recorded Sayings of William Jennings Bryan." "The friends of free silver have not been vanquished; they have simply been overcome. Let the roll be called for the next engagement." The bludgeon of the repudiator has not been cast away; it has simply been hidden back of the owner's coat-tails.

The only important act of congress with which Mr. Bryan's name is associated is the Wilson-Gorman tariff, which put the American woolgrower out of business and drove his sheep to the slaughter house.

Mr. Bryan is said to be very fond of music. His favorite song this year seems to be, "If You Ain't Got No Money You Needn't Come Around."

The Republican plan of campaign is on the firing line, and every shot tells.

Any finders of stray letters will please send them to 26 Broadway.

"CAUGHT WITH THE GOODS"

Preacher Roseberry Arrested at Chattanooga

Living With Miss Mastin As His Wife—The Law at Last Catches Up With Licentious Dominie

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., Oct. 19th.—H. E. Roseberry, formerly Pastor of the M. E. Church, South, at Sardis, Ky., was arrested here today and lodged in Jail.

Two weeks ago Roseberry came to Chattanooga with a sixteen-year-old girl.

They have since lived together as man and wife.

Today H. P. Mastin of Wilmore, Ky., came to Chattanooga and caused the arrest of Roseberry.

Mastin says the girl is his sister, and that Roseberry had left his wife at Wilmore and eloped with the girl.

Roseberry is charged with violating the age-of-consent law.

PUBLIC LEDGER readers are familiar with the escapades of the Rev. Roseberry, and will recall the facts published in this paper from time to time unmasking the pious fraud, who now appears as wicked as he was weak.

The charges against Roseberry cover nearly half a dozen felonies, and if he does not land behind the bars of the Penitentiary we will miss our guess. He seduced a very young girl, burned his own home for the insurance and deserted his wife, besides pulled the wool over the eyes of neighbors, friends and scores of his brother-

Preachers. But now the Rev. Harry is in the toils of the law, and will be brought back to Kentucky and given a trial for his many shortcomings.

Dr. Nina Stevens of Japan will give an address at the Christian Church Sunday, morning and night.

A Mild Laxative For Baby's Bowels

Doctor Points Out Dangers of Pills and Cathartics

"Salts, purgatives, and violent cathartics are dangerous when given babies, children or delicate women," says a well known doctor. "Neither should they be given medicines containing narcotics for stomach or bowel troubles."

It would be well for mothers to heed this warning and keep on hand a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for baby and herself and for any member of the family that has need of a laxative or a stomach remedy. It is safe and pleasant to take and has cured old people of chronic constipation and dyspepsia of many years' standing, and yet is harmless for a baby as many a happy mother can testify. It brings natural daily movements, sweetens the stomach, aids digestion and stimulates the torpid liver to proper action. The children like it. Lave Weathers, the popular hotel man in Indianapolis, says: "The children like it, we all use it and would not be without it in the house." Mrs. Mattie Crouch, Tiptonville, Tenn., cured her 5 months' old baby of indigestion with it. Mrs. Almon Willis, Jamaica, Vt., says it saved her baby's life. Mrs. A. B. Cunningham, Fresno, Calif., says she can't keep house without it. It cured her little son of rheumatism and stomach trouble.

Mrs. Flora Hebrew, Bow Creek, Kan., says: "Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin cured my little girl of constipation. I cannot recommend your splendid remedy too highly for children." Mrs. Mary E. Young, Burlington, Ia., writes: "I cheerfully recommend it to mothers as the best laxative for children." Mrs. Alice Miller, Canal Dover, has used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin with splendid results as a laxative for children.

All druggists sell it at 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Pepsin Syrup Co., 301 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill., will send a free sample to any one who has never used it and will give it a fair trial.

WHY Dress in Somber Colors Now Any More Than in Spring?

Brighten up! Just because nature is not gayly attired is a good reason why you should dress otherwise. The tendency this fall is to break away from dark shades and to wear the more highly colored fabrics. I have them all—olive shades of blue and brown, tans, grays and greens in all the fashionable hues. Any one of them tailored to your individual measure at

OUTRAGE IN TENNESSEE

Two Prominent Lawyers Murdered
By Night Riders—$10,000
Reward By Governor

UNION CITY, Tenn., October 20th.—Word comes to this city from Reelfoot Lake of a crime committed there last night. Hon. R. Z. Taylor and Capt. Quinten Rankin, both prominent lawyers of Trenton, Tenn., were fishing on the lake for a few days, and were assassinated by night riders some time last night. Mr. Taylor's body was found hanging to a tree and literally riddled with bullets. Capt. Rankin, when found, was not quite dead.

The outrage has created the greatest excitement here.

A later dispatch states that the two men were taken from the Walnut Log Hotel at the upper end of the Lake and separately hanged and shot. They had gone to the Lake to see about leasing some land in which they were interested.

MEMPHIS, TENN., October 20th.—Governor Patterson today offered a reward of $10,000 for the arrest of the person or persons guilty of the murder of Judge Taylor and Capt. Rankin at Reelfoot Lake.

STATES' RIGHTS

And a Tariff for Revenue Only,
Was the Slogan of Orator
Allen's Refrain—An
Unregenerated
Democrat

The well-known ability of Hon. J. R. Allen as an orator, and the liberal advertising of his coming, were the means of attracting between five and six hundred to the Courthouse last evening to hear his speech in behalf of the Democratic ticket.

Judge G. S. Wall, a wheel horse in local Democracy, introduced the speaker, who, after tendering his thanks for the cordial and attentive manner in which he had been received here by the Reception Committee, proceeded to business.

The first thing he wished to impress upon his audience was the fact that he was an unregenerated, dyed-in-the-wool, States' Rights Democrat of the old school—a John C. Calhoun nullifier, as it were.

He complimented Judge Taft in glowing terms in the beginning and further along in his speech, together with others, he belittled him.

From the manner in which he appealed to his Democratic friends not to side-step the Congressional candidate in this District, he evidently sees his handwriting on the wall which spells Mr. Kehoe's defeat in November.

He thrashed over the Tariff question from a Democratic standpoint, and drew the attention of the ladies present to the fact that when they paid an American milliner $10 for a Merry Widow Hat that they thereby contributed $6 of the amount to the Tariff-protected manufacturer—in other words, if we had Free Trade the pauper labor of Europe would produce the same article for $4.

He stated that in almost Free Trade England the mechanics were paid higher wages than the same class of mechanics received in high tariff Germany, but failed to inform his audience that here in America the same class of mechanics received almost twice the amount paid in either England or Germany for the same class of work.

He said the Silver question had been removed from the domain of politics and was no longer a factor in the campaign—Bryan doesn't say as much, however.

Mr. Allen is a decidedly pleasing speaker, but he is repeating the same old song that has been sung for the past twelve years.

Mr. E. W. Lane will address the colored voters of Washington tonight at 7:30.

COMMON COLDS

Become a serious matter if neglected. Bronchitis, pneumonia, asthma, catarrh or consumption is the common result. Get rid of that cold at once by taking Williams & Co.'s White Pine Cough Syrup. With it the most obstinate coughs yield to its grateful, soothing action, and to the rattling, persistent cough, often present in consumption, it gives prompt and sure relief. In fresh colds it is the remedy, breaking up the cold in a few hours and giving you a restful sleep. In the face of all these facts it is not a high priced remedy, but sells at 25c a bottle.

The decorations were very attractive, the halls and drawing-room being exquisite with quantities of red dahlias and white Bride roses. As usual, Mr. and Mrs. Russell proved themselves most charming host and hostess, while their guests were fair representatives of Kentucky's lovely women.

During the evening a most elegant lunch was served, after which the prizes were awarded. The ladies' prize, a real lace handkerchief, was won by Mrs. Clarence Wood, who most graciously presented it to Mrs. Botts. A box of cigars was presented to Mr. Clarence Wood, and Mrs. Price captured the guest prize, a pair of silk stockings. The guests present were: Mrs. Price, Mrs. Botts, Mr. and Mrs. William F. LEFT ON HER DOORSTEP FOR THIS MOTHER

Mrs. A. G. Tucson of Livermore, Cal., writes: "I picked up from my doorstep one day a little book in which I soon became very much interested. My little girl of five years of age had been troubled for a long time with loss of appetite, extreme nervousness and undue fatigue. She was all run-down and in a very delicate condition.
"This little book was very comprehensively written, and told of the new method of extracting the medicinal elements of the cod's liver from the oil, eliminating the obnoxious oil which is so hard for children to take.
"Just the thing," said I, 'for my little daughter,' and I immediately went for a bottle of Vinol. It helped her wonderfully. She has gained rapidly in health and strength, and she does not take cold half so easily.
"I am extremely grateful for the good it has done her, and I hope other mothers who have weak, delicate or ailing children will be benefited by my experience and just give Vinol a trial."
Vinol is sold in Maysville by John C. Pecor, Druggist.

McKenzie Todd, the Governor's Secretary, held down the responsibilities of the office.

CHARGES DENIED

In Damage Suit of W. S. Henderson Against Tobacco Growers

In the Federal Court in Covington Monday George Jett and other well-known Bracken county tobacco growers, who were made defendants in a damage suit filed by W. S. Henderson of Augusta, filed an answer in which they deny all of the allegations of the plaintiff. Some of them say that they were not present on the occasion that Henderson claims to have been threatened and made to sign an agreement not to purchase any tobacco.
Henderson claims in his petition that on account of the threats by the men he was compelled to leave his home and that the defendants did him irreparable damage.
When the case was called Monday Judge Cochran told both sides that he would set the case for hearing some time next week.

Miss Mary Short has been quite ill for several days at her home in East Third street, suffering from a sore throat.

WELL DESERVED

The Praise That Comes From Thankful Maysville People.

One kidney remedy never fails. Maysville people rely upon it. That remedy is Doan's Kidney Pills. Maysville testimony proves it always reliable. Mrs. Della Means, 328 East Front street, Maysville, Ky., says:
"About seven years ago kidney trouble made its appearance in my case. The first symptom was a sharp pain through the kidney regions, accompanied by a bearing-down feeling through the hips and loins. Dull, miserable headaches soon began to bother me, and I would often become so dizzy that if I did not catch hold of something I would have fallen. I continued to grow worse, until my condition became such that I was often confined to my bed for a week at a time. No remedy I used helped me in the least, and I was in a truly critical condition. Dropsical symptoms appeared, and at times there was an almost complete retention of the kidney secretions. My feet and ankles became so swollen that at times I could not wear my shoes, and this swelling gradually spread to all parts of my body, and it would be impossible to describe the misery I endured. I had about despaired of ever being cured, when I read of a person who had been cured of a similar trouble by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Deciding to try them, I procured a box at J. J. Wood & Son's Drugstore, and obtained so much relief from the contents of this box that I procured a further supply and through its use was entirely cured. I have no hesitancy in saying that Doan's Kidney Pills saved my life, and it would be impossible for me to give them more praise than they deserve."
For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
